

Summer 2019 Opportunities

Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week (PFEW) is a unique and challenging hands-on program for high school sophomores and juniors. Students form an executive management team with peers and run an imaginary business for a week. Make all decisions that are demanded of real life company executives - determine selling prices, develop budgets, research and development, devise marketing and advertising campaigns--while competing with other student companies. Hear and meet world class speakers who will share their experiences on a wide variety of topics. Every student accepted receives a $1,500 scholarship for attendance, only $295 registration fee is required of each student. For more information, visit www.PFEW.org.

Want to take a test drive of college at Duke University?

Duke Summer Session for High School Students' 2019 programs is now available! Choose from three transformative programs next summer. For more information, visit summercollege@duke.edu.

Ringling College of Art & Design is offering pre-college June 23- July 20, 2019. You get to know what it is like to attend an art and design college (specifically Ringling College) so that you can determine if this is really what you want. All students are enrolled in a full-time program of immersions in the majors as well as courses in art and design fundamentals. Apply at Ringling.edu/PreCollege.

Jacobs University Summer Camp 2019 participants will be able to attend a workshop in one of the following academic fields: Social Sciences, Economics and Management; Mathematics and Physics; and Energy, Resources and Technology.

Summer Discovery offers pre-college academic and enrichment programs. Through our collaborative partnerships with 14 universities in the U.S. and abroad, you can be confident that your student will have an unforgettable experience on a Summer Discovery program consisting of world-class academics, extra-curricular activities, recreation, and sports. For more information, give us a call at (516) 621-3939 or visit summerdiscovery.com.

Boston University's Summer Journalism Institute, presented by the College of Communication and the New England Center for Investigative Reporting, will hold two-week sessions beginning on June 24, July 8, and July 22. For more information and to apply, contact training@necir.org.

Temple College 101 is a two-week program for rising 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students. Students will take an SAT prep course, write an admissions essay and meet faculty and staff and learn about college life. For more information, visit precollege@temple.edu or call 215-204-2712.

Temple Summer Academy is a four-week program for rising 11th and 12th grade students. Students will take a college course, explore a college major, and earn a Temple tuition grant ($4,000; $1,000/year). For more information, visit precollege@temple.edu or call 215-204-2712.

CyberMath Academy offers summer camp either Harvard University (July 6-17) or Stanford University (July 15-27). Students will be able to choose from a variety of options which include College Prep (SAT and College Counseling and Application Planning), Math, Coding, Robotics, Game Design and Physics. Registration is open at <https://cybermath.org>.

Gettysburg College is excited to offer several opportunities for high school juniors and sophomores to attend academic camps over the summer months. Subjects include psychology, history, creative writing, piano, or information technology.

Beacon College's Summer for Success is a 3-week summer immersion experience that prepares LD/ADHD students for the transition to college with personalized, strategic coursework as well as off-campus activities, while living on our campus in Leesburg, FL with other students who learn differently. Visit <https://www.beaconcollege.edu/admissions/beacon-college-high-school-program/> for more information.

Cornell University Summer College Programs for High School Students brings more than 1,500 academically talented high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors from around the world to the Cornell campus in Ithaca, New York, each summer for three- and six-week programs in a wide variety of subjects, ranging from architecture, business, hospitality, and engineering to international relations, science, social change, and veterinary medicine—and many more.

Messiah College Young Writers' Workshop will be held June 23-28, 2019. Visit www.messiah.edu/writersworkshop for more information.

Messiah College Young Filmmakers' Workshop will be held June 23-28, 2019. Visit www.messiah.edu/filmmakersworkshop for more information.

The University of Virginia Cornerstone Summer Institute is a week-long summer camp for rising high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors to learn about slavery and its legacies by exploring the University, Charlottesville, and area landmarks. Applications are being accepted on a rolling basis until April 22, 2019. To find the application and learn more, click here.

Susquehanna University summer pre-college program - space is limited; registration is open now!

Case Western Reserve University Pre-Collegiate Summer Programs fully immerse high school students in a college curriculum, conversations, and activities June 23-July 13. Application deadline is May 1.

Drexel University offers high school students a range of academic programs during the summer to explore what life in college is all about. Offering both residential and day options, your students can take advantage of Drexel faculty-led workshops, labs, facilities, and all the city of Philadelphia has to offer. Read more about the Summer Institutes at Drexel University, including a complete list of programs, dates, and application instructions.

Pace University's 2019 Summer Scholars Institute for high school students will be held from July 14 to July 27 on our New York City Campus. For more information about the program please visit our website, or contact us at (212) 346-1915 or summerscholar@pace.edu. Applications will be accepted until April 15, 2019.

Marist University Summer Pre-College programs provide rising high school juniors and seniors the opportunity to take a course in a field they are passionate about while getting a taste of college life. Visit www.marist.edu/precollege for more information.

Gordon College's Equip is a week-long experience, during which students will have the opportunity to learn what Christianity looks like through the lens of creation care, social justice, the arts, innovation and technology while experiencing a close-knit relational community. If you have any questions, please contact equip@gordon.edu or visit the website at <http://www.gordon.edu/equip>.

Through Montclair State University's pre-college program, rising juniors and seniors earn transferable college credits, experience the rigors and expectations of college-level classes, learn alongside Montclair State University students and engage in courses taught by University professors on campus or online. Apply by visiting and completing the online application here.

Bucknell University's Summer Experience is a collaborative residential experience where rising junior and senior high school students are invited to explore the value of a liberal arts perspective in making challenging decisions to improve today's world. The deadline to apply is April 20, 2019. Visit www.https://www.bucknell.edu/BASE?utm_source=slate&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=base for more information.

The Miami University Summer Scholars Program provides a rich, early college experience for academically talented, rising high school juniors and seniors from across the globe. Students will join an engaged community of learners for an intensive, two-week program on Miami's campus exploring a topic of their choice alongside our leading faculty and professional experts.

Email summerscholars@MiamiOH.edu or call 513-529-2531 for more information.

Taylor University offers two types of summer experiences for high school sophomores and juniors. Visit www.TAYLOR.EDU/PRE-COLLEGE-PROGRAMS for more information.

The College of New Jersey's Summer Pre-College Academy Series welcomes rising 9th, 10th and 11th grade high school students who want to explore careers and experience undergraduate academic and student life at TCNJ. Information for all TCNJ Summer Pre College Programs at: <https://precollege.tcnj.edu/>

Cedar Crest College is offering Crime Scene Camp from June 24-26, 2019 for 9th and 10th grade students. The course fee is $250.00. Visit www.cedarcrest.edu/crimescenecamp for more information.